PENDLETON BEEF® IS NOW OUR PRIMARY BEEF

in the Pilgrim's Market Meat Department and we think it's worth getting to know.

Pendleton Beef partners with family-owned, multi-generation ranchers across the Northwest region. These ranchers know this land and care for their cattle through every season. Their Angus beef cattle are raised with care on wide-open pastures and finished on a carefully managed program, which gives you rich marbling and tender, flavorful beef every time.

Every animal can be traced back to the family ranch it came from, so you know exactly where your beef was raised and who raised it.
When you choose Pendleton Beef you're getting more than a great steak. You're supporting Northwest ranching families and the heritage behind every cut. Born and raised in the USA, you'll taste the difference and have the confidence that you're serving 100% American beef.
